Gifts to Bluefield College Top $3 Million: Highest in School History

Dear Faithful Alumni and Friends:

It is an honor to present this annual report, which is one small way for us to thank and recognize all of Bluefield College's donors who have provided support to the college during the 2011-2012 fiscal year. Total gifts to the college from alumni, parents, friends, and organizations totaled more than $3.3 million in 2011-2012 – the highest giving total in Bluefield College history. Imagine the impact that all of these gifts, combined, have had on the men and women who pursue their education at BC and the added impact these investments will have on the world these students will soon lead.

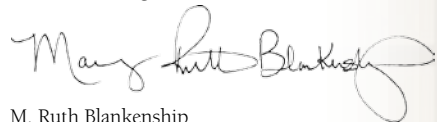

As the result of the generosity of more than 1,500 donors, Bluefield College exceeded $3 million in giving for the first time in school history. This a feat in our challenging economic times thought by many colleges to be impossible, but for BC we put all of our trust in our Heavenly Father. The result is a 67 percent increase in giving over the previous year to support the BC Fund, capital initiatives, academic programs, athletics, endowed scholarships, and the Shott Foundation Challenge Grant.

The 2011-2012 academic year was one of many firsts – our first $3 million record-setting fundraising year, our first football competition in more than 70 years, the school's first-ever RN-BSN degree completion program, and the first major gift to the Campus and Community Wellness Center in the form of a $1 million challenge grant from the Hugh I. Shott Foundation. All this is evidence that we are experiencing an unimaginable transformation.

This phenomenal success and blessing is the result of alumni and friends giving with a faithful heart to Bluefield College in the form of annual gifts, grants and estate bequests. With these resources, Bluefield College will continue to be a leader in preparing students for career success and a lifelong commitment to changing the world through learning, service and faith.

Like all private colleges, BC continues to face the challenge of maintaining excellence in the face of an uncertain national economy, and the financial pressure on students and their families will likely not diminish in the near future. Nevertheless, the college is well positioned to meet these challenges through our strong donor support. Once again, we thank you and we humbly ask that you continue to put your faith in Bluefield College in 2012-2013 by making an annual gift, including BC in your estate planning, or helping us meet the Shott Foundation Million Dollar Challenge. Most importantly, we encourage you to pray for our students, faculty and staff each and every day.

With faith and gratitude,

M. Ruth Blankenship
Vice President for Institutional Advancement

"For assuredly, I say to you, if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you." – Matthew 17:20

APRIL 2012

- BC hosts a daylong Appalachian Festival, featuring craft demonstrations, art exhibits and sales, Appalachian music and dancing, storytelling, workshops, and book signings and sales.
- The college dedicates a century-old Appalachian quilt that will hang inside Easley Library and serve as a memorial for the late Eva Vest Easley, who donated the family throw to BC.
- The college pays tribute to local journalists during its 13th Annual Media Appreciation Day, featuring remarks from alumnus and performance improvement specialist Spencer Wood and the presentation of $1,000 Shott Excellence in Media Awards to videographer Mark Hughes and student Lydia Freeman.
- Students celebrate BC's 34th Annual Mud Pig Day, featuring the ever-popular mud pit and waterslide, along with carnival games and a concert with The Afters.

A passion for tradition: Students take part in the activities of Mud Pig Day, a 34-year tradition of celebrating the culmination of another academic year.

- BC hosts a "Night of Philanthropy," an evening set aside to thank supporters for their generosity and to showcase new college initiatives, including a new $14 million capital campaign, "Capturing the Imagining."
